

The Wind's Blessed Soul

To wonder within the darkest field, to see your dreams not once fulfilled.

To let the madness take you straight, to let your heart just fill with hate,

Your light and love are like the wind, to soar to heaven with forgiven sins.

To rip your heart and shatter what hurts,

To reach the peace between Heaven and Earth.

You're never alone and one day you'll see, the light you released was meant to be.
